Issue 4 2013

Welcome to the fourth issue of Uphall Village News brought to you by Uphall Community Council. We hope you will find this issue interesting and informative.

All Community Council meetings are open to the public and all residents are welcome to attend as observers.

Irene Bishop, Chairperson.

Uphall Community Council

Uphall Community Council is comprised of members of the public who have an interest in their local community and aim to protect the interests of the residents of Uphall and promote sustainable development. This is a voluntary group who meet on the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 7p.m. in the Coffee Lounge at Uphall Community Education Centre.

Chairperson: Irene Bishop

Vice Chair :Jeanette Cumberford

Secretary: Lynne McEwen

Treasurer & Press Officer: Fraser Graham

Planning Secretary: Gerald Paisey

Members: Irene Jones, David Flight, Simon Moore, John Campbell

The Community Council is represented on many groups within West Lothian by individual members and these representatives report back at Community Council meetings.

This past year there have been presentations from the Pensioner Maximisation Service, The Credit Union and an explanation of the Food Waste Collection pilot scheme and a representative from a company to explain a proposed development.

Planning applications are discussed to protect the interests of our residents. Any issues which are brought to our attention are discussed and are followed up where possible by contacting the relevant authorities and reporting concerns.

Last year we mentioned the issues concerning the “pinch point” at the bottom Scotmid. We are happy to report that this has been removed.

An issue which was raised by several residents was the state of the Stankards footbridge and footpath. We raised this with our local councillors and work to improve these has now been completed.

If you are interested in either attending Community Council meetings, raising an issue or becoming a Community Councillor please check the Community Council notice boards in the post office, community centre or web site. The minutes of meetings can now be found on www.ucc.org.uk.

Christmas Switch On

There was a good turn out for the switch on of the Christmas lights on the 1st of December.

Once again the Switch On was before the Torchlight Procession and in conjunction with the Christmas in Broxburn and Uphall event. The day's events were organised by members of the Town Centre Management Group.

The lights were switched on by local resident Tom McCallum. Tom is a member of the South Church. He is involved in many different voluntary activities, mainly relating to working with the elderly in our local community. He also conducts a monthly reminiscence group in a local Old Folk's Home.

The music on the evening was provided by Radio Grapevine and some members of the junior brass band.

The Army Cadets were also in attendance to marshal the Torchlight Procession and it was the perfect opportunity to publicly reward them for their assistance in delivering the previous issue of this newsletter. They each received a Saltire Award and we are proud to say that they were the first group in West Lothian to be presented with this award for their efforts.

Uphall Children's Gala Day

The BUSY Project

The BUSY project is an initiative of the BASICS trust in partnership with SU Scotland and local churches. It is funded by the Gannochy Trust, Robertson Trust and the local community.

The BUSY Project this year has included a variety of activities and groups for young people in the local community. These range from the Friday afternoon Youth Cafe in the Open Door (3.30-5 p.m.) to one to one Listening Service in Broxburn Academy and lots more.

The latest special event was the Easter Buzz: including a trip to Paradise Island Golf and The Mine: an evening of computer games for 50 young people - which tested the capacity of the Open Door!

A number of young people are working to Saltire and Youth Achievement Awards which help them recognise their development and serve the community, alongside their Christian volunteers.

Uphall Golf Club

Uphall Golf club was founded in 1895, in lovely countryside, on land leased from Sheriff Shairp which was part of the Houston Estate. It has been part of the Uphall community for more than 100 years. The new clubhouse was built in 1991.

A lot of work has been done over the winter period to upgrade the course and the members are looking forward to playing on the improved course over the summer.

There are memberships to suit all ages. The junior membership is very strong at the moment with 119 members aged between 9 and 18. Gordon and Ian, the club professionals, are available to give instructions on the game. Lessons can be booked at an extra cost.

Golf is a social activity as well as a good way to keep fit and active for all age groups. Why not go along to the Golf Club on the 27th July between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. and enjoy the Fun Day. There will be a Barbeque and lots of fun for all the kids, big and small, and an opportunity to make friendships which will last a lifetime.

Community Police Team

Your local Community Police Team, consisting of your Community Beat Teams, West Lothian Council and Safer Neighbourhood Teams are pleased to welcome Inspector Jocelyn O'Connor and Sgt Caroline Mackay. Your Community Constables are PC Andy Kidd and PC Vince Manning.

Your Community Team became part of a single Police Force, Police Scotland, on 1st April 2013, a move that will bring together expertise across the county to improve service delivery to you and your community and ensure that local policing activity is targeted towards Keeping People Safe

Your Community Team are working with partners in West Lothian Council and other agencies to reduce crime and disorder, to increase public reassurance within your community and to keep people safe.

You identified that the policing priorities for the Uphall area were:

- Reducing anti-social behaviour

- Making our roads safer

In order to deliver on these priorities your Community Team will:

- Carry out bicycle, foot and mobile patrols to target "hot spot" areas, providing reassurance, and preventing and detecting crime.
- Target public drinking and the illegal sale of alcohol to minors.
- Give regular school talks on issues such as drugs, alcohol, knife crime and bullying.
- Work with local projects to divert young people away from crime.
- Target drug dealers in your community and seize their profits
- Provide support to and refer to outside agencies those affected by drug or alcohol misuse
- In partnership with West Lothian Council and local housing associations target those who persistently behave in an antisocial manner

Your Community Team will regularly update you with progress made to tackle these priorities and other issues that you may identify. Police Surgeries are held regularly, usually prior to or in conjunction with, Community Council meetings. In Uphall, at the Community Centre at 6.00pm on the Third Wednesday of the month.

You can contact your Community Team at Broxburn Police Station on 01506 852121 or at Lothian Scot Borders CPT Broxburn, Uphall and Winchburgh@scotland.pnn.police.uk

About two years ago the Town Centre Management Group commissioned a sculpture to be sited at the cemetery.

The artist selected was Michael Johnson. Michael did a lot of research into the area and spoke to many local people who could give him information.

He decided to base his work on the shale mining industry which has played an important part in the history of this area.

Once he had selected a theme he went to the local schools and worked with some of the children. The work he did in the schools is included in the rim of the base of the sculpture.

Shale from the bing was used in the construction of the base and in and around the base are various representations of tools etc which were used and some of the byproducts e.g., candles.

The top of the sculpture shows three different plants, Rosebay Willow Herb, Wild Garlic and Hawthorn that are found growing on Greendykes Bing and are represented here as symbols of regeneration and future growth.

The imagery is about valuing the past and also adapting and changing with life.

After a delay caused by a change in the plans to lower the site to make access easier, the sculpture was officially unveiled on the 30th of March by Mrs. Spiteri, the longest serving teacher at Uphall Primary, and the sculptor Michael Johnston.

It was good to see a local company and local men taking such pride in the preparation of the site and the installation of the sculpture.

History of Middleton Hall

Middleton Hall is the lesser known of Uphall's two surviving mansion houses, and stands in wooded grounds south of the Main Street at the east end of the village.

The present building dates from the early 18th century, and local legend says it was built from stones of the old Strathbrock Castle. Its builder was the Rev. George Barclay, who led an adventurous life. During the persecution of the Covenanters he fled to Holland, where he made a good deal of money, returned to Scotland and became minister at Uphall. He is said to have built Middleton Hall for his retirement, and had his initials carved on the bridge which leads into the Middleton estate. Middleton remained in the ownership of the Barclays for most of the 18th century, and the pastoral murals in the stairwell were painted during their time.

In 1798 the estate and mansion of Middleton were bought by William Inglis, an Edinburgh lawyer. He became bankrupt and sold the estate in 1828. The property passed through various hands, until in 1865 it was bought by John Pender. His initials can be seen on the upper storey of Muir's Buildings in Uphall, which formed part of the Middleton estate. He was a wealthy and self-made businessman whose firm was responsible for laying the first telegraph cable across the Atlantic, and overland to India and other parts of the Empire – an astonishing feat in the mid-19th century.

In 1899, Middleton Hall and estate were purchased by Broxburn Oil Company and let to the Edinburgh District Board of Lunacy for use as a temporary asylum until Bangour Village Hospital opened in 1906. During the 1914-18 war, when Bangour was a War Hospital, Middleton was used to house hospital staff.

In 1919, the remaining five Scottish shale oil companies came together to form Scottish Oils Ltd. The administrative and technical HQ of SOL were set up at Middleton Hall and houses were built in the grounds for its managers and foremen. In 1939, an extra storey was added to the house and an extension to the west. Compare the building as it is today, a nursing home, with the photograph taken in the 1910s, and see if you can trace the old house facade within the later additions.

Middleton Hall Bowling Club

If you think that all sport is strenuous, it's time to think again. Lawn bowling is an excellent way to get out in the fresh air and get some gentle exercise. What could be better than spending a warm summer's evening on the green throwing a few bowls with friends? How about finishing the evening off with a refreshing drink from the bar? Even better!

There are two fully qualified and vetted coaches at the club to show you the ropes. They can even lend you the equipment to get you started before you decide to take the plunge. Junior coaching is held on Tuesday afternoons and Saturday mornings. Contact John Collins at the club for more details.

As well as the health benefits of taking up a new outdoor pastime, Middleton Hall is also a social club. Regular monthly club nights are held where the members can enjoy free entertainment, bingo and some of the best value for money drinks in town. The function hall is also available for hire for your private parties.

Full information can be found on our website at www.middletonhallbowlingclub.co.uk or by calling in at the club.

You can look the club up on Facebook too.

Uphall Primary School

This session the children of Uphall Primary School have been working very hard on the Eco Schools Programme. As a result of this work the school has been awarded its third green flag. This is a fantastic achievement for the school, pupils and local community. The school eco-committee hope to involve the local community in further developments.

The pupils at Uphall Primary continue to raise funds for a variety of charities. Recently the P7 pupils organised a tombola stall in aid of Cancer Research and Poppy Scotland. They raised £255. They also supported Children in Need Day in November and raised an amazing total of £739. On Red Nose Day they all dressed up as film stars and raised £467. A grand total of £1461 .Congratulations.

The school have been delighted to welcome several parent helpers into the school who are supporting various activities in school. Any members of the community who do not have any direct involvement with the school but who would like to support them are asked to contact the school office at phone 01506 852516. Help in areas such as the school garden, working in classes with teachers, sharing any skills etc would be most appreciated.

Fairtrade in Uphall

This Year Fairtrade Fortnight ran from the 26th of February to the 11th of March. The theme was "change Today Choose Fairtrade."

The Open Door, the Community Centre and both local churches continue to support the Fairtrade Steering group by having displays and Coffee Mornings.

Although a competition was set for primary children it was very disappointing not to receive any entries this year.

Uphall Community Education Centre

The Community Centre continues to be the hub of activities in the village. Last summer a very enjoyable Garden Party, which was well attended, to commemorate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee was held. It was extremely busy on the day of the Gala and the ladies from the churches were kept busy serving teas. At Christmas it was bustling as we celebrated the switch on of the Christmas lights before setting off for the Torchlight Procession.

As well as the various courses and activities which go on throughout the year it is also used as a venue for meetings. Last year, due to the unfortunate closure of Vion (Halls), the Scottish Government Task Force held some of their meetings in the Centre.

There are now 3 public access computers available.

The management committee are always looking for your suggestions for courses or activities to improve the services available to the people of the village.

More information can be found on the Community Centre website at www.uphallcommunitycentre.co.uk

Summer Activities for Children in our area

There will be various activities for children during the summer holidays in the Community Centre and Churches in Uphall. The Sports Centre, Swimming Pool and Broxburn United Sports Club will also have Summer Activity Programmes.

Some of these are still in the planning stages so please look out for posters advertising these nearer the time.

Our Local Environment

The Community Council are still finding that one issue which comes up for discussion at our meetings is the number of complaints regarding the amount of litter, dog fouling and discarded chewing gum which is found throughout the village. Although this issue was highlighted in previous issues of the newsletter there has been no improvement.

We have been in touch with the Environmental Wardens and Dog Wardens who have been patrolling the area. On the spot fines will be issued to anyone dropping litter or not cleaning up dog mess if they are caught by the Wardens. Please pick up, bag and dispose of your dog mess in the bins provided, remembering that the ordinary litter bins can now be used.

After a walk around the village pointing out some of the worst areas with a member of the Nets team we were pleased to see an improvement when the team came in to do yet another clean up. Unfortunately this is always shortlived.

You can help by reporting anyone who continually allows their dog to foul and doesn't clean up. Contact West Lothian Council and ask to be put through to the Dog Wardens.

You can help by ensuring that adults and children alike properly dispose of their litter and chewing gum in the bins provided.

Let us work together to make Uphall a clean litter free village.
